ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
AUGUSTA, GEORGIA

The First St. Paul's was built in 1750 - This historical site originally was Fort Augusta erected in 1735 by General Oglethorpe. In 1818 the site was conveyed to trustees of the Episcopal Church, who constructed a new church destroyed by fire in 1916, and replaced by the present building.

Color by Morgan Fitz Photographers

Genuine Natural Color Made by Dexter Press, Inc., West Nyack, N. Y.

50689-B

Post Card

Mrs. Laurence Crawford
6 Raymond Place
West Port, Conn.